Kasetsart University Regulations on
Kasetsart University Undergraduate Studies
B.E. 2559 (2016)

Whereas it is expedient to establish the Regulations on Kasetsart University Undergraduate Studies, by virtue of Section 22(2) of the Kasetsart University Act, B.E. 2558 (2015) and through the resolution of Kasetsart University Council in the meeting no. 5/2559 on the 30th of May 2016, this set of regulations has thus been set up with the contents as follows:

1. This set of regulations shall be entitled “Kasetsart University Regulations on Kasetsart University Undergraduate Studies, B.E. 2559 (2016).”
2. This set of regulations shall come into force from the first semester of Academic Year 2006 onwards.
3. The following announcements shall be cancelled:
 - 3.1 The Announcement of Kasetsart University Council on Kasetsart University Undergraduate Studies, B.E. 2548 (2005)
 - 3.2 The Announcement of Kasetsart University Council on Kasetsart University Undergraduate Studies (No. 2), B.E. 2548 (2005)

3.3 The Announcement of Kasetsart University Council on Kasetsart University Undergraduate Studies (No. 3), B.E. 2557 (2014)

4. In this set of regulations:

“University” refers to Kasetsart University.

“President” refers to the President of Kasetsart University.

“Student” refers to a student of Kasetsart University.

“Academic Committee” refers to Kasetsart University Academic Committee.

“Student Registration Division” refers to the organization in charge of student registration at a campus level.

5. The President shall have charge and control for the execution of this sets of regulations.

In any case not included or not prescribed as a guideline under this set of regulations, the President shall have the authority to take action as deemed appropriate as long as it is not contradictory to the currently enforced criteria for undergraduate studies of the Ministry of Education.

Section 1

Admission and Education System

6. Student admission

The schedule and method of admission shall be in accordance with the announcement of the University in each academic year.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak
Bangkok 10900 Thailand

7. Candidates must have completed a high school level or equivalent and are free from the following prohibited qualifications:

7.1 A person with gross misconduct

7.2 A person of unsound mind

7.3 A person with severely contagious diseases or diseases which may obstruct education

7.4 A person whose name has been removed from an educational institution due to misconduct

8. Education system

8.1 Each academic year is divided into two regular semesters, which are first and second semesters, while a summer session may be carried out after the second semester. The study time must not be less than 15 weeks for a regular semester and approximately 6 weeks for a summer session. The study time of each summer session must be equivalent to that of a regular semester. The approval from the Academic Committee is required for a different semester arrangement.

8.2 The credit system is used, in which one credit is equivalent to a lecture or a discussion of 1 hour per week per one regular semester or a laboratory session of 2-3 hours per week per one regular semester.

8.3 Lectures, discussions or laboratory sessions take 50 minutes per one hour.

9. Registration

9.1 The schedule and method of registration shall be in accordance with the University prescription in each semester.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak
Bangkok 10900 Thailand

9.2 To register courses of study, the schedule of each course must not overlap; approval must be granted by the academic advisor; and the process must be in accordance with the requirements of the student's program and faculty.

9.3 To register courses of study in each regular semester, students must register not less than 9 credits, but not exceeding 22 credits. For a summer session, students may register no more than 7 credits except for the following cases:

9.3.1 If the study plan of the curriculum has prescribed a different number of credits, students may follow the study plan.

9.3.2 Students in the last registering semester before graduation with less than 9 credits.

9.3.3 If students are in the last registering regular semester before graduation with more than 22 credits to be registered, they may register no more than 25 credits.

9.3.4 If students are in the last registering summer session before graduation with more than 7 credits to be registered, they may register no more than 9 credits.

9.4 Students may register later than the period specified in the University schedule, but it must be within the first two weeks of a regular semester. For a summer session, please follow the announcement of the University. If the late registration period has elapsed, students must seek approval from the Dean of their faculty.

9.5 Students must check their student status before every registration. Those indebted to the University or failing to observe the terms and conditions of the University are not entitled to proceed with registration.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak
Bangkok 10900 Thailand

9.6 Students who are not eligible to register credits but have already proceeded with registration and paid the tuition fees are not entitled to ask for a refund.

9.7 Courses registered by fewer than six students may be closed by an order of the Dean of the faculty owning such courses, and students will be refunded for the credit fees, except for a fixed payment where no extra amount shall be paid or refunded.

9.8 Student level must be based on the following criteria:

9.8.1 Those obtaining no more than 34 credits shall be first-year students

9.8.2 Those obtaining 35 credits or over shall be second-year students

9.8.3 Those obtaining 69 credits or over shall be third-year students

9.8.4 Those obtaining 103 credits or over shall be fourth-year students

9.8.5 Those obtaining 137 credits or over shall be fifth-year students

9.8.6 Those obtaining 171 credits or over shall be sixth-year students

10. Add, drop and withdrawal

10.1 To add, drop or make changes to courses or sections can be done in the first two weeks of a regular semester. For a summer session, please follow the Regulations on Summer Session Studies with the approval from the academic advisor.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities

10.2 For withdrawal of some courses within 30 days from the start of a regular semester, such courses will be recorded as “W (Withdrawn)”. For a summer session, no “W” will be recorded, and approval must be granted by the academic advisor.

10.3 For withdrawal of some courses within 60 days from the start of a regular semester or as prescribed in the calendar of each academic year, approval must be granted by the course instructor, academic advisor and Dean of the student’s faculty. All the processes must be completed not less than 7 days prior to the final examination of that particular semester according to the University announcement.

10.4 If, after any change, there remains less than 9 credits, approval must be granted by the Dean of the student’s faculty.

10.5 For every change of courses, students must pay additional registration fee if the total fee of the new course is more than that of the former one, except when the fee has been paid as a fixed cost, where no additional payment is required in case of adding courses. Payment cannot be refunded in case of a request for course reduction or withdrawal.

11. Registration of courses with prerequisites

11.1 To register a course with a prerequisite, students must pass the prerequisite course first; otherwise, the registration will be invalid.

11.2 Students may enroll in a course concurrently with its prerequisite in case the prerequisite course was taken in the previous semester and an F was awarded, but with the approval from the academic advisor and the course instructor. However, if students fail the prerequisite course again, the continuing course will not become invalid, and the grade will be calculated in the cumulative GPA as usual.

11.3 For students enrolling in a continuing course concurrently with its prerequisite, if they wish to withdraw the prerequisite course, the continuing course must also be withdrawn at the same time. If not, such continuing course will be invalid.

11.4 Final-year students who will graduate in that academic year may ask for the continuing course to remain valid, with the approval from the Vice President for Academic Affairs prior to registration.

Section 2 Tuition Fees

12. Tuition fees and tuition fee payment

12.1 The tuition fee rate shall be in accordance with the University announcement approved by Kasetsart University Board.

12.2 The tuition fee payment shall be made in accordance with the procedures, methods, and dates prescribed by the University. The approval for late tuition fee payment shall be at the discretion of the Dean of the student's faculty, and such payment cannot be made later than 1 semester.

12.3 Exemption of tuition fees shall be under the authority of the President, and each type of exempted tuition fees must be included in the University announcement.

12.4 Students taking leave of absence or being suspended after registration cannot claim a tuition fee refund.

Section 3
Education Regulation

13. Study and examination regulations

13.1 Study regulations

13.1.1 Students must consecutively register courses in every regular semester. For leave of absence, students must follow Item 24 regarding leave of absence.

13.1.2 To be eligible to take the final exam, students must have not less than 80 percent of the total study hours of that course, except with the approval from the course instructor.

13.2 Types of registration

13.2.1 Credit courses are courses registered based on the curriculum structure, and the study results are calculated in the cumulative GPA.

13.2.2 Audit courses are courses registered to enhance knowledge, and the study results are not calculated in the cumulative GPA.

13.3 Examination regulations

13.3.1 Examinations are classified into 3 types, which are quizzes, midterm examination, and final examination.

13.3.2 The number and method of examinations are at the discretion of the course instructor.

13.3.3 The examination regulations shall be based on the University announcement.

13.3.4 In case a student has missed an exam with reasonable grounds, such student is entitled to submit to the course instructor a request for a make-up exam within 7 days from the exam date.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak
Bangkok 10900 Thailand

Approval must be granted by the course instructor, and the make-up exam must be carried out within 30 days from the actual exam date. If later than that, it shall be deemed that the student has missed the exam. In case it is necessary to take a make-up exam later than 30 days after the actual exam date, it shall be at the discretion of the Dean of the faculty owning such course.

13.3.5 Students committing examination dishonesty shall fail such course, and it shall be deemed as breaking discipline. Such students shall be penalized in accordance with the University regulations and are not entitled to withdraw such course.

14. Evaluation and assessment

14.1 Assessment of each course is in the form of grades, which can be interpreted as follows:

Grade	Meaning	Points
A	Excellent	4.0
B+	Very good	3.5
B	Good	3.0
C+	Fairly good	2.5
C	Fair	2.0
D+	Poor	1.5
D	Very poor	1.0
F	Fail	0.0
I	Incomplete	-
S	Satisfactory	-
U	Unsatisfactory	-
P	Passed	-
NP	Not passed	-
N	Grade not reported	-

The Language Centre
 Faculty of Humanities
 Kasetsart University
 50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak
 Bangkok 10900 Thailand

Grade "I" is used only in the case where some works of a student in a particular course are incomplete, but such student has been assessed for other tasks throughout the semester, which met the instructor's satisfaction.

Grades "S" and "U" are used for audit courses.

Grade "P" is used for the courses whose grades are not calculated in the cumulative GPA, non-credit internship, or courses whose credits are transferred from another institution.

Grade "N" is used only in the case where the grade has not been reported.

14.2 Students need to proceed with adjusting the grades I and N within 30 days after the last date of grade submission of each semester. Late adjustment of grades must be approved by the course instructor and the Dean of the faculty owning such courses, but it must not be later than the end of the following regular semester. If students fail to follow this regulation, they will receive an F or U in that course.

14.3 Adjustment of grades must be based on reasonable grounds and accompanied by supporting documents. In addition, approval must be granted by the course instructor, the Committee of the faculty owning such courses, and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

14.4 Calculation of cumulative GPA

14.4.1 For the calculation of a student's cumulative GPA, the points of all the registered credit courses, both pass and fail, shall be included.

14.4.2 For the calculation of the cumulative GPA of a student transferred from another major, program or faculty, the points of all the courses appearing in the new program to which the student has been transferred, whether they are transferred courses or not, must be included. The courses that do not appear in the program to which the student has been transferred will not be calculated in the cumulative GPA.

14.4.3 For the calculation of the cumulative GPA of a student transferred from another educational institution and a student with a diploma or equivalent who has been admitted to continue their education, only newly studied courses will be included.

14.4.4 The calculation of the cumulative GPA for student status differentiation based on the criteria in Items 26.4.9 and 26.4.10 will be carried out twice a year at the end of the first semester and the second semester. The study result of a summer session shall be calculated with the study result in the following semester, except for those graduating in such summer session.

14.4.5 The faculty may suspend the announcement of study results or issuance of a transcript for students if they are still indebted to their department or faculty.

14.4.6 The University may suspend or revoke issuance of a transcript and any certificate to students if they have outstanding debts within or outside the University as known by the University although the study result has already been announced.

15. Summer session studies shall be in accordance with the University Regulations on Summer Session Studies.

16. Internship and Cooperative Education

16.1 Students are required to participate in internship or Cooperative Education as prescribed in the curriculum. Those who have not completed the tasks shall not graduate as they have not met the curriculum requirements.

16.2 During the internship and Cooperative Education, the students' behavior and performance must be in accordance with the regulations in all respect. Violators will be sent back by the supervising instructor or external supervisor, and it shall be deemed that such internship or Cooperative Education is incomplete.

17. Change of faculty and major

17.1 Regulations on change of faculty

17.1.1 Students with a terminated student status are not entitled to change the faculty.

17.1.2 A change of faculty must be approved by the parents, academic advisor, Dean of the former faculty and committee of the new faculty.

17.1.3 Students may request to change the faculty only after they have studied in the former faculty for not less than two regular semesters.

17.1.4 To be conferred a degree or a diploma, students who have changed the faculty must have study hours in the new faculty for at least half of the total study hours of the new program.

However, there is an exception for those who studied in one faculty, then changed to another faculty, and moved back to the same faculty without changing the major.

17.2 Regulations on changes of program and major within the same faculty

17.2.1 Students may request to change from the former program to a new program, or from the former major to a new major with the approval from the Head of the former department or a person of equivalent authority or the instructor in charge of the former program; the Head of the new department or a person of equivalent authority or the instructor in charge of the new program; the Faculty Committee and the Dean.

17.2.2 To be conferred a degree or a diploma, students who have changed the program or major must have study hours in the new program or major of not less than two regular semesters before graduation, except the case where such students moved back to the former program or major.

18. Acceptance of transfer

18.1 The University will accept transfer of students with the following qualifications:

18.1.1 Students free from prohibited qualifications stated in Item 7.

18.1.2 Students from educational institutions accredited by the University.

18.1.3 Students who have passed all the courses based on the program structure of the former institutions for first-year students at a minimum.

18.1.4 Students with a cumulative GPA of 2.50 or equivalent in the last semester before requesting a transfer.

18.2 The consideration on acceptance of transfer shall be at the discretion of the Dean of the faculty to which students are transferred, with the approval from the Faculty Committee.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak
Bangkok 10900 Thailand

18.3 To be conferred a degree or a diploma, transferred students must have study hours in the University of not less than four regular semesters before graduation, but no more than twice the number of regular semesters to acquire the required remaining credits. In this regard, 18 credits shall be deemed equivalent to one regular semester, and a fraction of 9 credits shall be deemed equivalent to one regular semester.

19. Admission

19.1 The University will consider admission of only those with at least a diploma or equivalent from educational institutions accredited by the University and who must be free from the prohibited qualifications stated in Item 7.

19.2 Consideration on admission shall be at the discretion of the Dean of the faculty to admit students and with the approval from the Faculty Committee.

19.3 The period of time for studies in the University must not exceed twice the number of regular semesters to acquire all the required credits. For conversion of credits into number of regular semesters, follow the criteria in Item 18.3.

20. Course and credit transfer

20.1 Students eligible to transfer courses and credits are:

20.1.1 Students who have changed the faculty, program, or major are eligible for transfer of all the courses that appear in the new program.

20.1.2 Newly enrolled students are not eligible for course transfer, except for students of Kasetsart University whose student status has been terminated for not over 2 years, who may request to transfer courses with the grade of not lower than C or 2.0.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak

20.1.3 Students under the partnership program allowing transfer of courses.

20.1.4 Transferred or admitted students who come from other educational institutions.

20.1.5 Students approved to register courses across educational institutions or campuses.

20.2 Criteria for course and credit transfer are as follows:

20.2.1 For transferred or admitted students who come from another educational institution, transfer of courses which are comparable to the courses in the program where they are admitted, with the grade of not lower than C or 2.0 shall be recorded as P only. Please note that transferred students can transfer courses and credits of no more than half of the total credits of the program to which they are transferred, while the admitted students can transfer courses and credits of no more than two-thirds of the total credits of the program to which they are admitted.

20.2.2 Course transfer for students from different institutions shall be at the discretion of the course instructor with the approval from the instructor in charge of the program and the Dean of the faculty owning the course.

20.3 Transfer of subject group

20.3.1 The overall content of the subject group to be transferred to a comparable subject group must be 60% consistent, and the total number of credits of the subject group to be transferred must not be less than the total number of credits of the comparable subject group.

20.3.2 Every course in the subject group to be transferred must be awarded not lower than C or 2.0, which will be recorded as P.

20.3.3 In case the courses to be transferred are not courses in the bi-semester system, it shall be based on the discretion of the instructor in charge of the course, and approval must be granted by the instructor in charge of the program and the Dean of the faculty owning the course. In this case, the number of credits must be transferred to meet the bi-semester system criteria.

20.4 Transfer of experience, transfer of credits from non-formal education, and transfer of credits from informal education will be at the discretion of the instructor in charge of the program and with the approval from the Dean of the faculty owning the program. In this case, written or practical examinations may be carried out as deemed appropriate.

20.5 A student must proceed with a request for course transfer in order to be exempted from studies, with the approval from the instructor in charge of the program and the Dean of the student's faculty. The student needs to submit the evidence of the request to the Dean of the student's faculty within the first regular semester in which the change of faculty, program or major takes place, or in which the student is admitted or transferred from another educational institution. In case it cannot be done within the specified period, the decision shall be based on the instructor in charge of the program and approval from the Dean of the student's faculty.

21. Cross-institutional registration and cross-campus studies

21.1 Students may register cross-institutional studies in each semester if it is an audit course to enhance knowledge with the approval from the Dean of the student's faculty.

21.2 Students wishing to register a cross-institutional credit course must have one of the following qualifications:

21.2.1 Being students under the project carried out through the cooperation between two institutions with the approval from the Dean of the faculty owning the program.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak
Bangkok 10900 Thailand

21.2.2 Being students in the last registering semester, but the required course is not opened in that semester.

21.3 Courses to be registered in another institution must be transferred based on the University curriculum with the main focus on the content and number of credits, and based on the discretion of the instructor in charge of the course, with the approval from the Dean of the faculty owning the course.

21.4 The study result of another institution shall be recorded as P or NP and not calculated in the cumulative GPA, except for cross-campus studies and registering courses in the program under the partnership between the University and another institution, whose study results can be calculated in the cumulative GPA at the discretion of the instructor in charge of the program and the approval of the Dean of the faculty owing the course.

21.5 The practice as in Item 21.4 requires approval from the Dean of the student's faculty and the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

21.6 Students can register cross-campus studies with the approval from the academic advisor and from the Dean of the student's faculty. However, the student must proceed with registration and tuition fee payment at the student's original campus first in order to pay the tuition fees for another campus according to the announcement of Kasetsart University.

22. Study to adjust the cumulative GPA

22.1 To adjust the cumulative GPA by retaking a course, a student must have been awarded the grade of lower than C or 2.0 from such course before. For other cases, approval is required from the Dean of the student's faculty.

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak
Bangkok 10900 Thailand

22.2 For a retaken course, calculation of the cumulative GPA must include both the former and new grades.

22.3 In each semester, students can retake courses but with the condition that they must study other courses in the curriculum of not less than 9 credits. However, in the case students have achieved all the required undergraduate credits but the cumulative GPA is lower than the criteria set in Item 28.2, students may only retake courses to upgrade their cumulative GPA.

22.4 To retake any course, the approval from the academic advisor is required.

23. Sick and business leave

23.1 Sick and business leave of not over 15 days shall be at the discretion of the academic advisor to grant approval. If more than that, approval from the Department Head and the Dean of the student's faculty is required.

23.2 A student who has been approved to take leave is entitled to ask for taking examinations, having attendance checked, and other benefits related to study and examination from the course instructor as deemed appropriate.

24. Leave of absence

24.1 A student may submit a request for leave of absence in any of the following cases with the approval from the Dean of the student's faculty:

24.1.1 Being recruited to enter the military service;

24.1.2 Receiving an international student exchange scholarship or any other scholarship the University deemed appropriate to support;

24.1.3 Suffering from accidents, dangers or illnesses to the extent that he/she is prevented from studying effectively;

The Language Centre
Faculty of Humanities
Kasetsart University
50 Phaholyothin Rd., Chatuchak

24.2 A request for leave of absence requires the approval from the parents.

24.3 If there are reasonable grounds in addition to Item 24.1, the decision shall be based on the discretion of the Dean of the student's faculty.

24.4 A request for leave of absence must be approved before the start of the final examination date of that particular semester in accordance with the University announcement.

24.5 Each leave of absence cannot last over 2 consecutive semesters. If a student needs to extend the leave, he/she must resubmit a request for approval.

24.6 A student approved to take leave of absence must pay for student status maintenance fee and register student status maintenance.

25. Resignation

To resign from the University, a student needs approval from the parents, academic advisor, and the Dean of the student's faculty.

Section 4

Student Status

26. Student status

26.1 Those duly and correctly follow the Regulations on Undergraduate Studies of the University shall maintain their student status. Prescription of student year is in accordance with the criteria in Item 9.8.

19

26.2 A normal student is a student with the cumulative GPA of not less than 2.00.

26.3 A student on probation is a student with the cumulative GPA of less than 2.00.

26.4 Student status shall be terminated from:

26.4.1 Death

26.4.2 Resignation

26.4.3 Disqualifications or possession of any prohibited qualifications according to Item 7

26.4.4 Being a student of another public higher education institution, except if such institution is an open university

26.4.5 Having already been granted a diploma or a degree from Kasetsart University Council, except being approved by the President to further studies

26.4.6 Not registering courses or student status maintenance within the first two weeks from the start of the semester, except with the approval from the Dean of the student's faculty

26.4.7 Taking leave of absence without permission as prescribed in this set of regulations;

26.4.8 Maintaining the student status for twice the number of academic years prescribed in the curriculum or twice the number of regular semesters required to achieve the required credits for the curriculum, but failing to meet the requirements of the curriculum. Converting the number of credits into the number of regular semesters shall be based on the criteria in Item 18.3. Counting of semesters shall include both registering semesters and semesters taking leave of absence.

26.4.9 Obtaining the cumulative GPA of less than 1.50, except for a new student's first semester.

26.4.10 Obtaining the cumulative GPA of less than 1.75 for two consecutive regular semesters, but not including a new student's first semester.

26.4.11 Receiving disciplinary punishment or being expelled.

26.4.12 Being sentenced to imprisonment, except for petty offenses or offenses from negligence.

26.5 Those with a student status must possess a student identification card as evidence for claiming benefits in the University.

Section 5

Degree Conferral and Giving of Academic Excellence Awards

27. Giving of Academic Excellence Awards

Students entitled to receive an academic excellence award must obtain the GPA for that academic year of 3.50 or over and pass every course. However, the study result of the summer session shall not be included for calculation. Students must register not less than 32 credits throughout the two regular semesters of that academic year, excluding the credits from internship. In addition, the registered courses must not be retaken courses, courses awarded with an "F", courses taken to adjust the cumulative GPA, or courses taken as audit courses before. Final-year students of each program are not under the scope of being granted this award.

28. Request for graduation and approval of a degree or a diploma

28.1 Students must submit a request for graduation to their academic advisor and the Dean of their faculty within 30 days from the start of the last semester in which they expect to acquire all the required credits.

28.2 Students entitled to apply for graduation must have completed all the required courses and follow all the curriculum requirements with the cumulative GPA of 2.00 or over throughout the curriculum, and with the study hours in the University of not less than 6 regular semesters for 4-year-program students, or not less than 8 regular semesters for 5-year-program students, and not less than 10 semesters for 6-year-program students, except for those with transferred courses and credits.

28.3 Students need to pass all the registered courses in order to apply for graduation and degree conferral. In case they receive an F in an elective course, they may choose to study another course with the approval from the academic advisor, instructor in charge of the program, or the Department Head, and the Dean of their faculty.
